

THE POCKET SCAVENGER by Keri Smith (ISBN 978-0-399-16023-3)

Before coming to “The Knowledge Café” session, please find one or more items on this list. Note the location where you found it/them and the date and time you found it/them. Do not ask any more questions.

Wear your creativity hat (you can find one or make one yourself from paper, cardboard, etc.) so that we can take a group picture(s) at the beginning of the session.

Plan to have some fun and get some inspiration for a piece(s) of social media content.

Item(s):

- Postage stamps.
- The number “5.”
- A paper clip.
- A feather.
- A used envelope.
- A ticket.
- Nine circles.
- A form of currency.
- Something you can see through.
- Three different textures.
- Something with text on it.
- A Post-It Note.
- A piece of moss.

- Some wire.
- A part of something you ate.
- Something you can only find in your local environment.
- Something on your body.
- A used tea bag.
- A napkin.
- Something sticky.
- Six blue things.
- A piece of a puzzle.
- An elastic band.
- An image of a character.
- Several kinds of leaves.
- A piece of red string.
- A wrapper.
- A photo of yourself.
- A postcard.
- Four squares.
- Five buttons.
- An image of an elephant.
- Rock tracings.

- Something orange.
- Something from the year you were born.
- A handwritten quote.
- Samples of handwriting from five different people.
- A pencil rubbing of a gravestone.
- A hair sample.
- A fortune from a fortune cookie.
- A coupon.
- Something that is broken or damaged.
- Something that was discarded.
- A stain made by a liquid.
- A stain that is green.
- Something that can be crumbled.
- Something that can be dragged and leaves a mark.
- Something that was part of a tree.
- Something that was planted.
- A found note.
- A piece of flat candy.
- A few seed pods.
- Something left by an animal.

- Something that was created using a machine.
- Something that was made by hand.
- Something that is miniature.
- A piece of origami.
- Something that was given to you.
- A drawing (not done by you.)
- Several different kinds of grass.
- Something that is imaginary.
- A piece of Styrofoam.
- Several plastic items of different colors.
- Something with spots.
- Something curved.
- Six triangles.
- Something with a hole in it.
- A part of a book.
- A pencil rubbing of a bottom of a shoe.
- Something from a construction site.
- A UPC symbol.
- A piece of green fabric.